World Without Cancer

$16.95

by Griffin

In this provocative book, author G. Edward Griffin compiles the evidence that cancer is the result of a dietary deficiency in a substance known as vitamin B-17. Purified for cancer treatment, this substance is also known as Laetrile. Could this substance be one of the keys to unlocking a cure for cancer? Treatment with Laetrile is banned by the FDA. Griffin poses the question of whether or not investigations into the efficacy of the substance have been stymied by entrenched interests in the healthcare industry. (1997ed, 368pp, pb, $16.95)

McGuffey Readers: Set of 7 by McGuffey

$75.95

Get all of the famous McGuffey Readers in this exclusive set of 7! In the 19th century McGuffey Readers were among the most important texts used in primary education. These readers became so popular that during their heyday approximately half of all American children learned to read with them. Between 1836 and 1850 alone, seven million copies of the McGuffey Readers were sold. Unlike the "see Spot run" look-say/whole-language methodology of the public schools of today, the McGuffey selections presented valuable moral lessons and good writing in a form that children could enjoy and understand.
